Joan Ihle

Resident of the Month December 2024

Joan Ihle was born December 23rd in Baltimore, MD. She was one of twelve children! After grade school she began working at Hutzler's Department Store, which she greatly enjoyed. Afterwards, she also worked for Baltimore County Schools in the cafeteria for 38 years, and at Friendly's serving ice cream for several years as well.

Joan met her husband, Earl, through a friend, and they were married about a year later in 1951. Together, they had three children, Earl Jr., Kenny, and Tommy. Today, she has five grandchildren, and cherishes visits from Alayna, Cameron, and Evan, her three great-grandchildren.

Joan loves playing and watching sports. She enjoyed playing softball with her boys and duckpin bowling, and loves watching football. Go Ravens!! She also enjoyed working on paint by number oil paintings. Joan moved here in October of 2023, and we couldn't be more happy to have her. You might see Joan around working on a craft, playing BINGO, or listening to our live music. When you see Joan around, be sure to say, "Hello!", you will be glad you did!

Timeless Treasures

Old-fashioned toys have a timeless charm that still brings joy during the holiday season. These classic playthings remind us that fun doesn't need to be high-tech to be memorable. Take the Slinky, for example. Invented in the 1940s by a mechanical engineer, this simple metal spring became an instant hit. Kids marveled as it "walked" down stairs. Over 300 million Slinkys have been sold since.

Then there's the yo-yo, which dates back to ancient Greece. The modern version we know today gained popularity in the 1920s. Yo-yos were a must-have for kids learning tricks like "Walk the Dog" and "Around the World." They remain a nostalgic favorite and are often found in Christmas stockings.

Another beloved toy is the Etch A Sketch, introduced in 1960. This magical drawing board uses knobs to create pictures with aluminum powder. It sold over 600,000 units during its first Christmas season. The Etch A Sketch became a staple under the Christmas tree, offering endless creativity without the need for batteries.

No list of classic toys would be complete without the beloved jack-in-the-box. Originating in the 16th century, this whimsical toy has delighted children for centuries. The thrill of turning the crank and waiting for the cheerful pop of a clown or other character never gets old—a perfect reminder that sometimes the most delightful toys are the ones that make us smile with anticipation.

And who could forget Lincoln Logs? These wooden building sets were created in 1916 by John Lloyd Wright, the son of renowned architect Frank Lloyd Wright. This open-ended toy allowed children to build miniature log cabins and other structures. The sets are still cherished for their simplicity and the way they spark the imagination.
